The program also received some consideration and a portion of it was determined upon. More attention will be given to encouraging the improvement of all classes of horses than ever before. Freasiums will be offered for the best riding, driving, draft and work horses. Skill in training and handling horses will also be encouraged by special premiums. In short, horsemanship will be the subject for special consideration. Instead of offering premiums for time speed the custom will be reversed and distance will be considered rather than time. Bicycling will also be made one of the special features on account of the increasing popularity of this means of locomotion. One day will be devoted to a children's carnival. A special effort will be made to make it a distinctively agricultural fair in all its departments.

CLOSED THE CONTRACT.

West Michigan Electric Company

The General Electric company of New York, through its western office in Chicago and the Grand Rapids Electric company, has just closed a contract with the West Michigan Electric company for the electrical apparatus to be used in this company's transmission plant. The community is already somewhat familiar with the very enterprising scheme of this company, composed of six substantial and representative business men of western Michigan. They evidently mean business, and in less than a year, probably, will have a long transmission plant that will attract attention in all parts of the world.

It is proposed, and work has been bea loss of less than 25 per cent. The distance is nearly twenty miles.

This plant will be very widely known from the fact that very few, if any, similar transmissions at as great distance and as high guaranteed efficiency have ever been installed. It is proposed to place in direct connection with the water-wheels in Lowell a 1,000-horse power "multi-phase" dynamo that generates a current of low voltage. By means of the "transformer" the current will be increased to a voltage of twenty times the pressure in order to prevent loss in the conducting wires. In Grand Rapids a second "transformer" will reduce the current to a voltage desirable for the use for which it is intended.

In the installation of this apparatus for which it is intended.

In the installation of this apparatus and line construction the general company will operate through the Grand Rapids Electric company, of which Prof. C. A. Carman, the well-known electrician, is president and general manager. The West Michigan Electric company is composed of C. Jesse Church of Greenville, president; E. F. Sweet, Grand Rapids, vice president; A. C. Sekell, secretary; C. A. Church, Lowell, treasurer; John E. More, Grand Rapids, and Dr. O. C. McDannell, Lowell. It is a scheme the development of which will be watched with interest.

DO YOU KNOW HIM?

Frank P. Myers, the Bouncing Sheriff of Charlevoix County. Charlevoix County.

On account of his great rotundity Sheriff Myers of Boyne Falls is one of the most conspicuous figures in the state of Michigan. His great popularity and his genial disposition make warm friends wherever he goes. Owing to the ponderous dimensions of his waist measure Mr. Myers finds it very difficult to purchase clothing large enough to cover the great breadth of abdominal cuticle. No ready made clothing store has ever been able to fit him. Last week Mr. Myers discovered that his wardrobe needed replenishing. He would try Grand Rapids, and, landing at the Union depot, he soon met an honest-looking policeman with whom he consulted as to the best place to get a suit of clothes. The policeman took suit of ciothes. The policeman trok out a little card and wrote the name of Strahan & Greulich, the clothiers. Farther down the street an acrather down the street an ac-quaintance supplemented the po-liceman's advice by directing him to the same concern. Mr. Myers finally struck another friend who thought he might be "suited" by applying to a Canal street store. The attempt was futile and Mr. Myers wan-dered off to a shirt factory to get dered off to a shirt factory to get measured for shirts. Upon asking the shirt man for his opinion the gentleman volunteered to escort him to a good rehabie bouse. The couple soon drew up to the store of Strahan & Greulich. For the third time disinterested parties had referred him to this firm, and his confireferred him to this firm, and his confi-dence was established. By chaiking around the 60-inch waist his measure was taken, and next week he will appear in a nobby new suit. The record of the measure shows Mr. Myers' weight at 355 pounds, chest measure 63 inches, waist measure 65 inches, pants 28 inches in seam. It took of single width cieth eleven yards to make the suit. Strahan a Greuheh need not be afraid to tackie mything that comes along in the suit few diseases that can not either be cured or controlled.

About the last to yield to the patient, securate study of science, were diseases of the kidneys.

In the case of Bright's disease there is still that deadly certainty of diagnosis which answers the inquirer bluntly, yes, or no, but the disease itself has lost its fearfulness. Medicine cures and controls it today.

Perhaps more study has been devoted to this consumption of the kidneys than to any other single complaint. Its characteristics have been most clearly marked out. The disease soon involves many other organs of the body; other troubles are induced, such as pneumonia and rheumatism. The trouble is primarily with the blood and nerves.

Bome of the symptoms of disease of the kidneys are rapid weakening of the system, tenderness over the kidneys, chills, headaches and swelling of feet and limbs.

and limbs.

Physicians have, in many cases, held to their own ideas of the incurableness of kidney troubles, and have clung stiffly to their old-time text books, but so many of these cases have been afterwards cured by Paine's celery compound that this great remedy is looked upon by physicians as having unsurpassed power to cure all diseases of the kidneys. It cures where everything else fails. Paine's celery compound is as superior to all the ordinary "trade" remedies as a diamond is to common glass. It was first prescribed by no less a man than Dr. E. E. Phelps, the most famous of Dartmouth's professors, and is indorsed by physicians and the public as no other remedy was ever indorsed.
